THE ITALIANS LIKE BISHOP

The La Sentinella, an Italian newspaper published at Thomas W. Va., contains a pleasing tribute to the Rt. Rev. P. J. Donahue, together with a picture of his Lordship. The article is relative to the work of the Bishop among the Italians throughout the state. It is as follows:

We are glad to give our readers in this number, the picture of his Lordship P. J. Donahue, Bishop of West Virginia. His aspect shows him about sixty years, but in substance he is younger, and in the fulness of his face, you can read the nobility of his soul and the goodness of his heart.

Profound in classical and theological studies, he knows very well several languages among them the Italian tongue, which he learned at Rome, where he had also the opportunity of appreciating the artistic works which give so much honor to our country. He likes our people, our ways and all the beauties of Italy and often speaks of them with enthusiasm. In the exercise of his holy ministry in every occasion, he shows a special attention to all the Italians who live in his large diocese.

But it was better known at Wheeling at the small feast which was given on Easter Monday at the Carroll club, for the purpose of giving some enjoyment to the Italian children. In his beautiful address on that occasion he said: "We have here a small colony of Italians who came from that country which is the fatherland of the great saints, of the great artists, of the great scholars." Now who does not see in these words the true affection which he has for the sons of Italy?

His Lordship Donahue showed also by facts, his benevolence for our countrymen, when he gathered in the fine school of the Xaverian Brothers, all the Italian boys of Wheeling and spent more than two hundred dollars to provide uniforms for all the poor Italian boys of that city.

For his profound studies, for his intelligence, for his rare virtue he receives the veneration of all who know him and all the Catholics of his large diocese see in him the true pastor bonus of the gospel.

SPORTING NEWS

A. J. (Apple Jack) Gus Smith is assisting the sport writer on the Telegram in spots, when the latter isn't looking.

Hereafter tickets for the ball game will be on sale at Nussbaum's clothing store, which arrangement will prove of convenience to patrons. In the event of rain tickets sold there will be good for the game following the rain.

The management of the Cincinnati team will have charge of the sale and collection of tickets, and as a consequence no pass issued by the local management and now out will be honored at the game Aug. 14 between Cincinnati and the locals.

Clarksburg horses played a prominent part in the first day's races at Connellsville, Pa. J. A. Clark's Orphan Boy took the 2:30 pacing event, winning every heat and coming in at 2:20 1-4 twice and 2:24 1-4. In the same race Scott Willis' horse, Raven Boy, came under the wire second in the first heat, third in the second heat and second in the third heat.

The White Citys have not yet announced their line-up for the Sunday game against the locals at Union park. It is the general supposition that the best available material will be brought. The team was most awfully sore when they were defeated here a few weeks ago.

"WHAT MAKES GOOD MEAT?"

we are often asked. Answer too long for this space. You may be surprised to know how much (healthy cattle and scientific slaughtering as a basis) depends on the retail butcher. It's the way we have of storing, handling, cutting and serving that makes this meat market stand out as one worth patronizing.

A man who is in perfect health, he can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. Mr. L. C. Dodgers, of Branchton, Pa., writes that he was not only unable to work, but he couldn't stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made him a new man. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure." Sold by Sturm & Wilson.
